Seattle Waldorf School is seeking an engaging, competent, and compassionate Education Support Teaching Assistant to support our Education Support program's tasks and responsibilities. We are looking for someone who can work effectively as part of a team, and independently. We need an educator who understands best practices in education support, who is interested in collaborative and multidisciplinary approaches, and who is passionate about teaching high school aged students. We are looking for staff and faculty who share our belief that a culturally rich and inclusive school community provides students with the best possible environment for a quality education. Salary is competitive with independent schools. Seattle Waldorf School offers an excellent benefits package, opportunities for professional development, and an extraordinary work environment.

Who We Are:

At Seattle Waldorf School, students become creative problem-solvers—imaginative thinkers who journey toward intellectual excellence, human compassion and artistic skill. Our modern curriculum is rooted in tradition—for children 18 months to 18 years. We lead students on a joyful journey that fosters critical thinking, synthesis and creativity. We are privileged to employ some of the most highly trained Waldorf teachers in the country. Founded in Seattle in 1980, we are the only Preschool–Grade 12 Waldorf School in Washington.

Our Mission: Daily we strive to inspire learning, courage, and joy in the developing human being.

Job Summary: Provides direct education support to students while working under the guidance of an Education Support Specialist

Specific Responsibilities:

- Available 7 hours per day during school days for education support sessions with students and meetings
- Supports and communicates effectively with students in Grades 9-12 both individually and in small groups
- Provides written observations, notes, records, and data of students' progress
- Participates in collaborative meetings to support student learning and community development
- Maintains communication and collaboration with colleagues
- Break and dismissal duties as assigned (approximately 7 per week)
- Attends weekly Department Meetings, High School Faculty Meetings, Full Faculty Meetings as scheduled and In Service/PD days
- Models a culture of flexible, continuous learning for students
- Establishes and cultivates community relations by maintaining open and candid dialogue with all of the school's constituencies
- Is familiar and complies with all policies and regulations as put forth in the school's documents
- Vigorously engages in professional development through teacher in-services, Preview Days, Review Days, and conferences as determined in conversation with Education Support Director
- Since safety and security are everyone's responsibility, takes all necessary and reasonable precautions to protect students, faculty, staff, equipment, materials and facilities
- Performs other duties as assigned
